

Kapok Bush

Mount Barnett, an Aboriginal Cattle Station on the rugged Gibb River Road in the Kimberleys, was where I made this Essence.

It is for people who have a tendency to give up very easily, who are easily discouraged. It can also give people an overview of a plan or situation and then allow them to work it through sequentially and be able to bring it to fruition. It could even be for someone with a piece of technology or machinery, to assist them to understand how it works.

Negative Condition:

- apathy
- resignation
- discouraged
- half-hearted

Positive Outcome:

- willingness
- application
- 'give it a go'
- persistence
- perception
