

ANTIOXIDANT SUPERFOOD PUNCH

CRANBERRY PLUS

For Urinary Tract Health

Cranberry Plus contains both cranberry extract and D-mannose in a base of aloe providing a synergistic formula for supporting urinary tract health.

Our superfood combination rejuvenates the body with its dynamic fusion of cranberry and Aloe Vera juice. This nutritious blend is jam-packed with antioxidants.

Cranberry has traditionally been used to help to maintain urinary tract health and is a natural source of the antioxidant Vitamins C & E. Cranberry Plus packs a punch with the equivalent of 60,000mg of Cranberry per serve!

Aloe Vera has traditionally been used to soothe the mucous membranes. It also increases the bioavailability of the other nutrients in the formula.

Cranberry Plus also contains:

- D-mannose works synergistically with cranberry for faster action.
- Couch Grass has a gentle soothing effect on the delicate mucous membrane.
- Modified Silica has alkalising properties.

SUGGESTED USE:

Mix 2 dessert spoons (~20mls) in a glass of water or juice and drink 1-2 times daily.

Ensure plenty of liquid intake throughout the day.
