Healing Nature

The flower essence of forgiveness and love. To bring back the light and re-sensitise after resentment and heavy emotional traumas one can't seem to forget. This flower essence brings people back to their own hearts rather than staying in their resentful gut reactions, to go forward with their lives and leave their negativity in the past.

Spiritual Qualities

Some of the hardest lessons we learn are the ones confronting us because of betrayal by a person we care about or are vulnerable to. It is a test of our ability to keep the greater vision of the purpose and higher goals of our Soul while facing the events our personality is grappling with. To bring in the Light and allow our Soul to lead the way heals the personality and reasserts our direction, freeing us from the darkness of negativity and hurtful deeds.
