The Light of Conscience

Healing Nature

The essence of awakening and purification of the heart. The essence of conscience. For those who get caught in rapacious, manipulative power playing for their own gain, losing sight of the reality of natural Karma where Life asserts justice. A person with raised consciousness sees the futility of what they are doing and the effects on others. As the Light of conscience pierces the darkness a new person is born.

Spiritual Qualities

Every action creates an equal reaction, this is the law of Karma. It is a natural flow which ensures balance and transformation in creation. Everything in the Cosmos is linked to everything else. One action vibrates waves that flow and bounce off other forms and lead to events. Anyone who thinks they are above this natural flow of the Universe will find out how real it is when the natural consequences of their actions come flowing back to them.

Positive Qualities – Key Words:

The Light is so intense every part of my being is accentuated and defined. I am seen in total nowhere to hide I am free and naked to Truth.

Mental/Emotional Health

Oral Dosage of Flower Essences (for mental/emotional wellbeing)

Information on prescribing and preparing oral doses.

- The mind that prides itself on abilities to control and manipulate people is bound to have problems in relationships with others. Theirs is a particularly hard form of superiority complex which does not like to be thwarted. If someone escapes their game they pursue them ever more vigorously until they win, but in the process expose themselves, their duplicity and selfish aims.
